

Responders Near Me

Safe Helpline's comprehensive database of military and civilian sexual assault service providers.

- ✓ Search for resources near you using a base/installation name or zip code.
- ✓ Access to military responders and local civilian sexual assault service providers.
- ✓ Available online at SafeHelpline.org/near-me, through the Safe Helpline App, or by text at 55-247 (inside the U.S.) or 001-202-470-5546 (outside the U.S.).

How can Accessing Resources Near Me Help?

It can be helpful to have support in your own community after sexual assault. Both military and civilian resources have highly trained staff who can offer assistance in moments of crisis as well as resources for ongoing support related to sexual assault.

Through the database, survivors are able to connect with local responders, such as SARCs, who can assist a survivor in making a report.

What Resources are Available?

Connect with resources such as:

- Sexual Assault Response Coordinators (SARCs)
- Medical providers
- Legal services (including Special Victims' Counsel and Victims' Legal Counsel)
- Chaplains
- Military police
- Civilian sexual assault service providers
